

C.V. / Résumé – May 2005

HARRY R. OWENS, JR., MD, MIM

CITIZENSHIP: USA STATUS: Single

BUSINESS ADDRESS: P.O. Box 7107
Bend, OR 97708 USA

PHONE: (541) 822-3718 Home
(541) 520-3431 Cell

FAX: (541) 617-2649

EDUCATION:

1962, BS - Major: Biology - St. Louis University, St. Louis, MO

1966, MD - St. Louis University; St. Louis, MO

1966-67 - Rotating Internship - San Joaquin Co. Hospital; Stockton, CA

1969-70 - First Year, Internal Medicine Residency - St. Mary's Health Center; St. Louis, MO

1970-71 - First Year, General Surgery Residency - San Joaquin Co. Hospital.; Stockton, CA

1980, MIM - Masters in International Management – Thunderbird, American Graduate School of International Management; Glendale, AZ

MILITARY:

1967-69 - Active Duty, USPHS, Division of Indian Health; Kotzebue, AK

Current Status - Commander, Inactive Reserve, USPHS

WORK RESUME:

Medical Practice

Military - 1967-69; General Medical Officer - general practice with the Eskimos in the Arctic; Kotzebue, AK

1968-69: Service Unit Director (also Acting Hospital Administrator for four months) for USPHS Kotzebue Service Unit in the Alaskan Arctic

Private Practice - 1971-72: Solo Family Practice; Palmer, AK

1974-75: Group Family Practice; Palmer, AK

Non-profit Consumer Groups – 1981-82: full-time family practice, Norton Sound Health Corp., Nome, AK

1983-1989: part-time Norton Sound Health Corp., Nome, AK.

2002- Present: Eastern Aleutian Tribes, Inc.: Akutan Clinic, Akutan (Aleutian Islands), AK – full-time family practice in an Aleut fishing village two to three months [December, January, February] each year.

International Health

1973: Project Hope, Hospital Ship Hope; Maceió, Alagoas, Brazil; Deputy Chief of Staff and Ship's Physician

1975-77: Esperança, Inc. - Am. International Health Organization (PVO); Santarém, Pará, Brazil; full-time, Medical Director, family practice, and teaching/training of medical, nursing, and nutrition students, and village health aides

1978-present: Fundação Esperança - Brazilian Health Foundation - part-time, health provider/consultant in Brazilian Amazon, and in Guinea-Bissau and Mozambique, Africa

1978-1999: part-time, International Health Consultant at the Esperança Inc. corporate headquarters in Phoenix, AZ, and on location in the Amazon Jungle of Brazil; Bolivia; Guinea-Bissau, West Africa; Mozambique, Southeast Africa

1980-81 (5 months): Boston University, Research Assistant. On location in Guinea-Bissau, West Africa, as manager of a health planning research team for African Development Bank/USAID

1982 (2 months): Whittaker Corp., Khamis Mushat, Saudi Arabia. Family practice clinician; management consultant; conducted a course in Stress Management/Wellness/Creativity for health personnel.

1988 (1 month): Health Research Consultant for US Ambassador Melissa Wells, on location in Mozambique

1996 (3 weeks): Mozambique - conducted (USAID-sponsored) workshop in medical management for Ministry of Health

2004 (9 weeks): Tanzania – worked with Flying Medical Service [a US-sponsored NGO that works with the Catholic Diocese of Arusha], doing health care in outlying hospitals and villages in Masai land in the Serengeti Plains.

Stress Management/Creativity/Human Potentiation

1982-present: Consultant work and conducting seminars, workshops, and courses for private enterprise, colleges, and graduate schools.

- 1989-present: Consultant in human potentiation programs at St. Charles Medical Center; Bend, OR, working with the employees and outreach programs in central and eastern Oregon.
- 1995-present: Consultant for St. Charles Medical Center's People-Centered Teams: Healing the WorkplaceSM seminars and executive coaching programs in contracted hospitals/health systems in the U.S.
- 1992-2001: Consultant to Walt Disney World Co. in human potentiation programs – doing workshops, presentations, and Executive Coaching

Management and Administration

- 1968 (4 months): Acting Hospital Administrator, USPHS Hospital; Kotzebue, AK
- 1978 (6 months): Acting Executive Director, Esperança, Inc.; Phoenix, AZ
- 1989-present: Consultant at St. Charles Medical Center, Bend, OR, for administration, medical staff, and department heads; Assisting in outreach programs to other hospitals and communities in central and eastern Oregon.
- 1989-present: Consultant throughout U.S. in medical management, and healthcare and societal futuristics.
- 1987-present: Serve in a lay advisory role to the Abbot and monks of Our Lady of Guadalupe Trappist Monastery, Lafayette, OR
- 1992-1993 (6 months): Acting Business Manager in residence for Our Lady of Guadalupe Trappist Abbey, Lafayette, OR; managed external affairs for the monastery and conducted communications and management training sessions for the monks.
- 1995 (3 months): Acting Hospital Administrator, Norton Sound Health Corporation Regional Hospital, Nome, AK

Cross Cultural Communications

- 1985-present: (part-time) Visiting Professor, American Graduate School of International Management; Glendale, AZ, both on their main Glendale Thunderbird campus and in their overseas programs (Czech Republic, Singapore, and Bosnia); teaching basic and advanced courses; training/teaching consultant for private enterprise.
- 1988 (2½ months): U.S. Peace Corps.; Guinea-Bissau, West Africa. Training Director. Also coordinated and set up cross-cultural communication course for Peace Corps trainees.
- 1989-present: consulting, training, and workshops - in U.S. and overseas.
- 1990- 1993: (part-time) Visiting Professor, ICPE (International Center for Public Enterprises in Developing Countries), Ljubljana, Slovenia.
- 1997: Consultant to faculty at the Czech Management Center in Čelokovice, Czech Republic, in setting up courses in cross-cultural communications for their MBA and Executive programs
- 2001: Presenter in two-week agribusiness workshop in Bosnia to a group of mid-level managers in agribusiness; funded by the U.S. Department of Agriculture

Teaching

- 1961-62: Undergraduate Teaching Fellowship, Biology Dept.; St. Louis Univ., St. Louis, MO
- 1973: Visiting Professor of Medicine - State University of Alagoas and Federal University of Alagoas, Brazil
- 1976-77: Visiting Professor of Medicine - Federal University of Pará, Brazil.
- 1985-2001: (part-time) Visiting Professor - Dept. of International Studies, American Graduate School of International Management; Glendale, AZ; teaching Cross-Cultural Communications.
- 1991-present: Member of Consulting Services Network (directed by Dr. Leland Kaiser, Brighton, CO).
- 1999-Present: (part-time) Adjunct Professor, Executive Education Department, Thunderbird [American] Garvin Graduate School of International Management; Glendale, AZ: teaching personal/organizational stress management, and consciousness and spirituality in global business.
- 1985-1990: (part-time) Instructor - Northwest College (Univ. of Alaska), Nome, AK, in Stress Management/Wellness/Creativity.
- 1988 (January): Guest Lecturer - at graduate school, E.S.S.E.C., in Paris, France; in Stress Management/Wellness/Creativity, and International Health and Business.
- 1989-1992: Guest Lecturer - Bellevue Community College, Bellevue, WA - Cross-Cultural Communications
- 1990: Visiting Professor - ICPE (International Center for Public Enterprises in Developing Countries), Ljubljana, Yugoslavia - Cross-Cultural Communications;

Guest Lecturer - Penn College of Technology, Williamsport, PA
1992-Present: Guest Lecturer/Resource Person - University of Colorado, Denver - Executive Masters in Health Administration (XMHA) Program - General Systems Theory
1993: Visiting Professor - ICPE (International Center for Public Enterprises in Developing Countries), Ljubljana, Slovenia - Cross-Cultural Communications
1996-1999: Adjunct Faculty, Greenwich University, Hawaii.
2000-Present: Coaching/Teaching Fellow for American College of Physician Executives

Wilderness Medicine

1966-Present: Active in wilderness medicine; serve as trip physician on wilderness trips.

MEDICAL LICENSURE: Alaska, California, Missouri, Brazil, and Tanzania

MEDICAL CERTIFICATION:

American Board of Family Practice, 1972; Recertification 1978, 1984, 1990, 1996, 2002
American Board of Medical Management: Certification Exam, 1992
Certifying Commission in Medical Management: Certified Physician Executive (CPE), 1999
American Heart Association BLS for Healthcare Providers (CPR & AED), April 2005
American Heart Association ACLS Provider, April 2005
American College of Surgeons ATLS Course, (Pending, June 25, 2005)

MEMBERSHIPS:

American Academy of Family Practice – Diplomate and Fellow (FAAFP)
American College of Physician Executives – Diplomate and Fellow (FACPE)
SIETAR (Society for Intercultural Education, Training, and Research)
World Future Society

LANGUAGES:

English - first language
Portuguese – fluent: speak, understand, read, and write
Spanish - poor: speak, understand, and read
French - poor: read

SPECIAL INTERESTS:

Holistic health with emphasis in individual consciousness expansion for patient, health provider, and health management team; blending high-tech and high-touch modalities; and increasing global consciousness.
Stress Management/Wellness/Creativity consulting and teaching.
Cross-Cultural Communications consulting and teaching.
International Health
Medical Management

OTHER PAST ACTIVITIES:

Shepherd; assistant horse wrangler; camp counselor; short-order cook; rock climbing instructor; spelunking instructor; truck driver; interstate bus driver; American Red Cross First Aid Instructor [for Basic and Advanced Courses]; skydiver; private pilot [including aerobatic training]; and wilderness survival instructor [arctic, mountain, desert, and jungle].

REFERENCES AND EXPANDED RESUME: available upon request