

CURRICULUM VITAE

JAMES OSCHMAN, PhD
PMB 170, 827 Central Avenue
Dover, New York, USA 03820
Email: joschman@aol.com

Website: www.energyresearch.bizland.com/index.html

Phone: 603-742-3789

1961: B.S. Biophysics, University of Pittsburgh

1965: Ph.D. Biology, University of Pittsburgh

1965-6: Postdoctoral Fellow, Neurobiology Laboratory, VA Hospital, Pittsburgh; Adjunct Assistant Professor, University of Pittsburgh

1997: Visiting Scientist, Department of Zoology, Cambridge, England

1967 to 1969: Postdoctoral Fellow, Case Western Reserve University, Cleveland

1969: NIH Postdoctoral Fellow, Case Western Reserve University

1970: Postdoctoral Fellow, University of Copenhagen

1970-1974: Assistant Professor Biological Sciences, Director of Electron Microscope Laboratory, Northwestern University; taught physiology, cell physiology, electron microscopy

1970-1974: winter research, Cambridge, England; summer research, Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole, MA

1975-9: Staff Scientist, Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole, MA

1979-present: scientific consulting for various organizations

1986: "citation classic" from the Institute for Scientific Information.

1990: Distinguished Service Award, Rolf Institute

1982-1992: Board of Directors and Faculty, New England School of Acupuncture (NESA), Watertown, MA

1986-1990: Director of Research, World Dolphin Research Society

1992: Chairman of the Board of Directors and Acting President, NESA

Major academic research: water and ion transport across epithelia; role of calcium in control of cell function; scientific basis of complementary therapies

Editorial boards: Journal of Membrane Biochemistry, Journal of Bodywork and Movement Therapies, Clinical Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine: An International Journal.

1992-present: President, Natures Own Research Association

Lectures and workshops: Stichting Opleiding Manuele Therapie, Amersfoort, The Netherlands; Concord Hospital, NH; Rolf Institute and Guild for Structural Integration, Boulder, Colorado; Colorado Cranial Institute, Zurich, Switzerland; Upledger Institute United Kingdom; Rosenberg Institute and Nordleys Massage school, Silkeborg, Denmark; Ergoterapeut-og Fysioterapeutiskolen, Holstebro, Denmark; Massage Therapy Research Agenda Workgroup, American Massage Therapy Foundation, Grand Rounds, Rehabilitation Medicine, NIH, Grand Rounds, Wentworth Douglass Hospital, Dover, NH

2000: Education Consultant, Institute for New Medicine, Georgetown University Medical Center, Washington DC

2001: Member of Study Section for evaluating National Institutes of Health Research Grants.

2002: Member of the Scientific Advisory Board, National Foundation for Alternative Medicine (<http://www.nfam.org>)

2002: Recipient of the Founder's Award from the National Foundation for Alternative Medicine, Washington, DC.